THE STORY SO FAR...

After the events in 2017 (terrorist attacks and Grenfell), Les Isaac brought some key London leaders together and a strong desire was expressed to raise the visibility and strategy of prayer across London.

Following a major crisis in our capital, #PRAYLONDON acts as a catalyst to unite the church in prayer in Jesus' name.

At present there are two prayer gatherings per year in Central London hosted by the #PRAYLONDON team. These attract about 100 people to pray from across the city and cover issues such as Brexit's impact on London and Knife Crime.

Trying to bring Christians from across the city together to pray is often a challenge and we are inviting church unity groups, local churches and prayer networks to host a #PRAYLONDON event in their area in November 2019.

MOVING REGIONAL?

In November 2019, we are looking for church unity groups, local churches and prayer networks to host a local #PRAYLONDON event in their area of London.

Centrally, the #PRAYLONDON team will create complimentary material that can be used locally, focused on challenging issues facing London and with insights on how to pray strategically and intentionally. This material would include:

- Crafted Powerpoint
- Key prayer points
- Interviews with strategic people

The content would be created to make it easy for churches to 'plug in and play' and could be used as a stand alone event or adapted to be used as part of an existing prayer gathering. We would also encourage each local prayer gathering to pray for its own borough during the time.

Where possible, one of the #PRAYLONDON team may be able to come and take part in the prayer gathering.

The local hosts would be responsible for any costs (eg worship leaders, church hall usage). Depending on take up and response, we may look to hosting more central and local prayer gatherings across the city in 2020.

WHAT DO WE HOPE TO ACHIEVE?

1. To encourage more Christians to pray for London in times of crisis (especially those who are unable to get to a central London location).
2. To help local groups pray intentionally for London regarding issues we face as a city.
3. To help foster church unity by helping churches to stand together in prayer in times of crisis.
4. To sign up Christians to an email alert when there is a significant issue facing London, so that we can mobilise a prayer response at a moments notice.
